

Transparent: allows light through, objects can be seen through it.

Translucent: allows some light through but shape or colour of objects may be changed or distorted.

Opaque: does not allow any light through, you can not see through it.

Transparent	Translucent	Opaque

Sort these objects into the columns.

Challenge

Pair of glasses: why is the frame opaque but the lenses transparent?

Sunglasses and glasses: what is the difference between these and why?

