Use the guided reading text for your group: Lucius and the Roman tablet

Find a partner as you are going to compete with them. If it's just you, make sure you've got a way to time yourself to see how fast you are!

Start with the text face down, read the first question, flip your paper over, the first person to put their finger on the word and shout 'got it!' wins. Repeat this with all of the questions and see who gets the most points.
