

Setting planning sheet

Draw a picture of where you would like your story to be set.

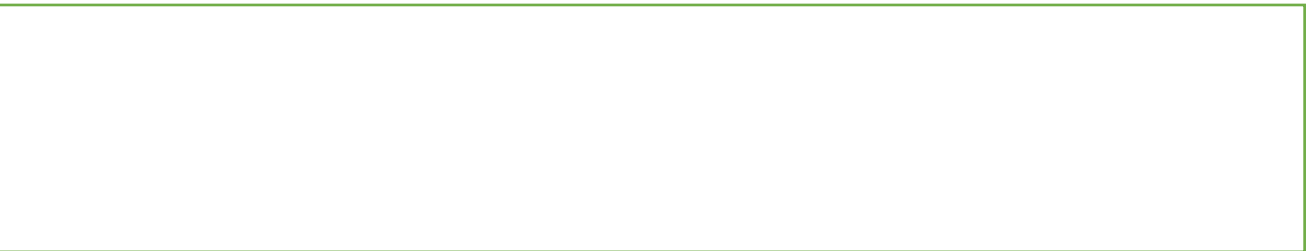

Ideas: beach, woods, park, school, under the sea, space...

Adjectives to describe your setting

Similes, metaphors, personification

Your first sentence

Make sure to include when and where your story is set.

You could include a hook to make people want to continue reading...

Example: Early in the morning, at the edge of the creepy woods, there was a peculiar, high-pitched scraping noise.

