

Marie Curie discovered radioactivity which is used medically in x-rays, gamma rays, electron beams and to destroy cancer cells.

Orville and Wilbur Wright were the first to build and fly a powered aircraft in controlled flights.

Charles Darwin is probably most famous for his development of the theory of evolution.

Stephen Hawking made many scientific theories which revolutionized the way physicists think about the universe.

Sir Isaac Newton studied gravity and developed three laws of motion which now form the basis for physics studied today. He also discovered calculus which led into more powerful mathematical equations.

Ada Lovelace was a mathematician and is considered the first computer programmer.

Sir Timothy Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web and is still developing it today.

Inventor fact file

Name:
Date of birth:
Birth place:
Invention(s):
Interesting facts:	