Writing Task	Write a 500-word story, only. It can be about anything you want. Your story must include a beginning, a middle and an end. Plan your story first. Don't forget to use the proper punctuation marks in your writing.
Word focus	This week's word is 'audacious'. Write the definition of this word and put it in a sentence. Find some other words that mean the same (synonyms) and find some words that are the opposite (antonyms).
Task for the week	Choose a King or Queen of England and find out everything you can about them, e.g. their full name, the era they ruled, what interesting things happened during that time and some of the horrible things that happened during that time. Write a letter to that King or Queen and explain why you have chosen them, tell them about what things are happening now that were different back then and what is similar. Use the writing checklist and examples of a formal letter to help you. Have a go at making something from the period, if you want a challenge.
PE	https://www.twinkl.co.uk/resource/joe-wicks-5-minute-move-workout-1-cards-t-pe-250 Either do Jo Wicks' daily PE lessons on YouTube or use the link and complete his 5 minute workout cards.
Challenge for the week (with the family)	"Where have you been caught reading?" Take a picture of where you and your family have been caught reading during this time and send it to us. Have a competition within your family; the most obscure place could possibly win a prize, e.g. a cooked meal or a cup of tea.
