

Character description

Introduction of character

Introduce your character. Who are they? Where are they? Describe their appearance. Use your own vocabulary bank as well as the character description sheet to help you.

You need to change your focus. Either describe something else about your character (clothes, how they move, where they live etc) or talk about what they are doing as you watch them.

Suggested openers:

As I walked into the room there was one figure that caught my eye.
