How is your personal information collected?

We collect personal information about visitors when you sign into our school premises. This information is stored within our electronic signing in system.

We may also collect information ahead of your visit to our school, which we collect directly from you or the person arranging your visit. E.g., the organisation you work for.

For what purposes do we use visitors’ personal information?

We will use your personal information to:

- Identify you and keep you safe while on the school site
- Keep pupils and staff safe
- Maintain accurate records of visits to the school
- Provide appropriate access arrangements

Who might we share your information with?

Appropriate security measures have been put in place to prevent personal information being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way.

- We will not share your data with third parties, unless the law requires us to do so.
- Our Lawful Basis for Processing your Data
- Our lawful bases for processing your information for the purposes listed above are:
- To comply with the law
- To fulfil a public task
- To protection yours or someone else's vital interests
- For purposes of substantial public interest
- Where we have asked for your consent to use your information
- Where we have identified a legitimate interest

What do we do with your information?

All personal information is held in a manner which is compliant with Data Protection legislation. Personal information is only processed for the purpose it was collected. The Inclusive Learning Federation monitors the personal information it processes and will only share personal information with a third party if it has a legal basis to do so.

How long do we keep your information for?

In retaining personal information, The Inclusive Learning Federation complies with the Retention Schedules provided by the Information Record Management Society. The schedules set out the Statutory Provisions under which The Inclusive Learning Federation are required to retain the information.

A copy of those schedules can be located using the following link:
