This knowledge organiser is a guide, offering key information to point the teacher in the right direction as to the beliefs underpinning the particular enquiry.

The summaries must not be taken as the beliefs of ALL members of the particular religion.

Religion /Worldview: Judaism	Enquiry Question: What is the best way for a Jew to lead a good life?	Age: 7-9	Enquiry 1
In this unit, the children look at different actions Jews can take to show their trust in God.

Core Knowledge (see also background information documents) Abraham: Abraham is the founder of Judaism and that he made a covenant or an agreement with God. God promised that Abraham would be great nation. His wife eventually gave birth to a son when she was 90 years old, named Isaac. God asked Abraham to take Isaac away and sacrifice him. Just as he was about to kill Isaac, God stopped him and provided a ram as a sacrifice instead. Jewish marriage: This is seen as a public commitment making ceremony and therefore a sincere desire to lead a good life. The ceremony is described in detail in the plan. Mitzvoth means doing good and helping others. This is an important part of Jewish life. There are 613 rules or suggested ways this can be done. Tikkun Olam (repair of the world) comes from an early Jewish code called the Mishnah. To perform an act of kindness that will improve or help to repair the world. Tu B'Shevat: this is an annual tree planting ceremony which usually takes place in January or February. It is considered the Jewish New Year for trees. This is part of taking care of the environment. Mitzvah Day: Jews feel they can all make a positive difference to the world in which they live by giving their most valuable possession — their time. Mitzvah Day falls on the 3rd Sunday in November (which coincides with interfaith week). It began as a Jewish project but is now a multifaith and multicultural project.	Link to other aspects of belief <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Abraham and Isaac • Mitzvoth • Synagogue 	Personal connection / resonance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What ceremonies have I seen or taken part in? • What commitments do I show?
