Religion /Worldview: Sanatana Dharma	Enquiry Question: Does visiting the River Ganges makes a person a better Sanatani?	Age: 7-9 Enquiry 1
In this enquiry, the children look at the importance of the River Ganges to Sanatanis. They learn about some key beliefs and practices that happen here.

Core Knowledge (see also background information documents)		Link to other aspects of belief	Personal connection / resonance
This enquiry concentrates on Sanatani beliefs about the River Ganges and some of the practices which occur there. The River Ganges is considered to be sacred and spiritually pure by believers although in reality it is not a clean river. Because of the purifying nature of the river, Sanatanis believe that any rituals performed on the banks of the Ganges or in its water will wash away impurity. The Puranas (ancient Sanatani scriptures) say that taking a dip in the sacred river ‘bestows heavenly blessings’. Many Sanatanis believe that bathing here will help them spiritually. It is also a place where the dead are cremated. Many Sanatanis believe that this will help them in their next life		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The cycle of life – reincarnation, karma and rebirth • Stories concerning some deities and sacred places on the Ganges 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is there a special place that I would like to visit one day? • How would I pack for a special journey to a faraway place? • How would I feel if I went there?
