..... An excerpt from The Twins' Tunnel Trouble

Some twins are the best of friends while others (like Susie and Patrick) are perhaps more like the worst of enemies! Susie was a lively, adventurous girl with a wild imagination. Patrick was the complete opposite and was a quiet, shy boy, who liked to keep his imagination fixed on the books he read and the drawings he created. Often, people were amazed that they were even related! They never got along and bickered constantly.

One morning during the summer holidays, Susie and Patrick were in the middle of a particularly nasty disagreement over which TV channel they wanted to watch. "Stop it at once!" roared Dad. His face was like a raging bull as he told both of them to go and play outside immediately. "Can't you try to find some common ground where you could at least pretend to get along?" pleaded Dad.

When he had caught up with Susie, Patrick found her peering into a dark, brick-red tunnel with no light coming from the other side. "Let's go, scaredy-cat!" called Susie adventurously before she rapidly disappeared into the tunnel. A storm was coming and it was starting to get dark. Patrick didn't want to be left on his own. He followed her in and felt his way along the dark tunnel until he reached the other end.

As Patrick's eyes gradually adjusted to the brightness, he could just make out a crystal white sky with towering pine trees overhead. What was this place and how had he got here? He tiptoed into the icy wonderland and felt the crisp, white snow crunch under his feet. His new environment was truly magical but little did Patrick know that it was all about to change. Without warning, the sun disappeared behind a nearby mountain and an icy chill ran down Patrick's spine. Dark shadows appeared to dance in front of his eyes. Suddenly, he felt very alone and desperate. Where was his sister when he needed her?

"Ahh-woooooo!" A loud, howling noise filled the bitter air. Instantly, Patrick knew that that wasn't the sound of Susie about to jump out on him but actually the sound of a hungry wolf about to pounce. Patrick ran for his life.
