

RENAISSANCE

Foster a love for reading

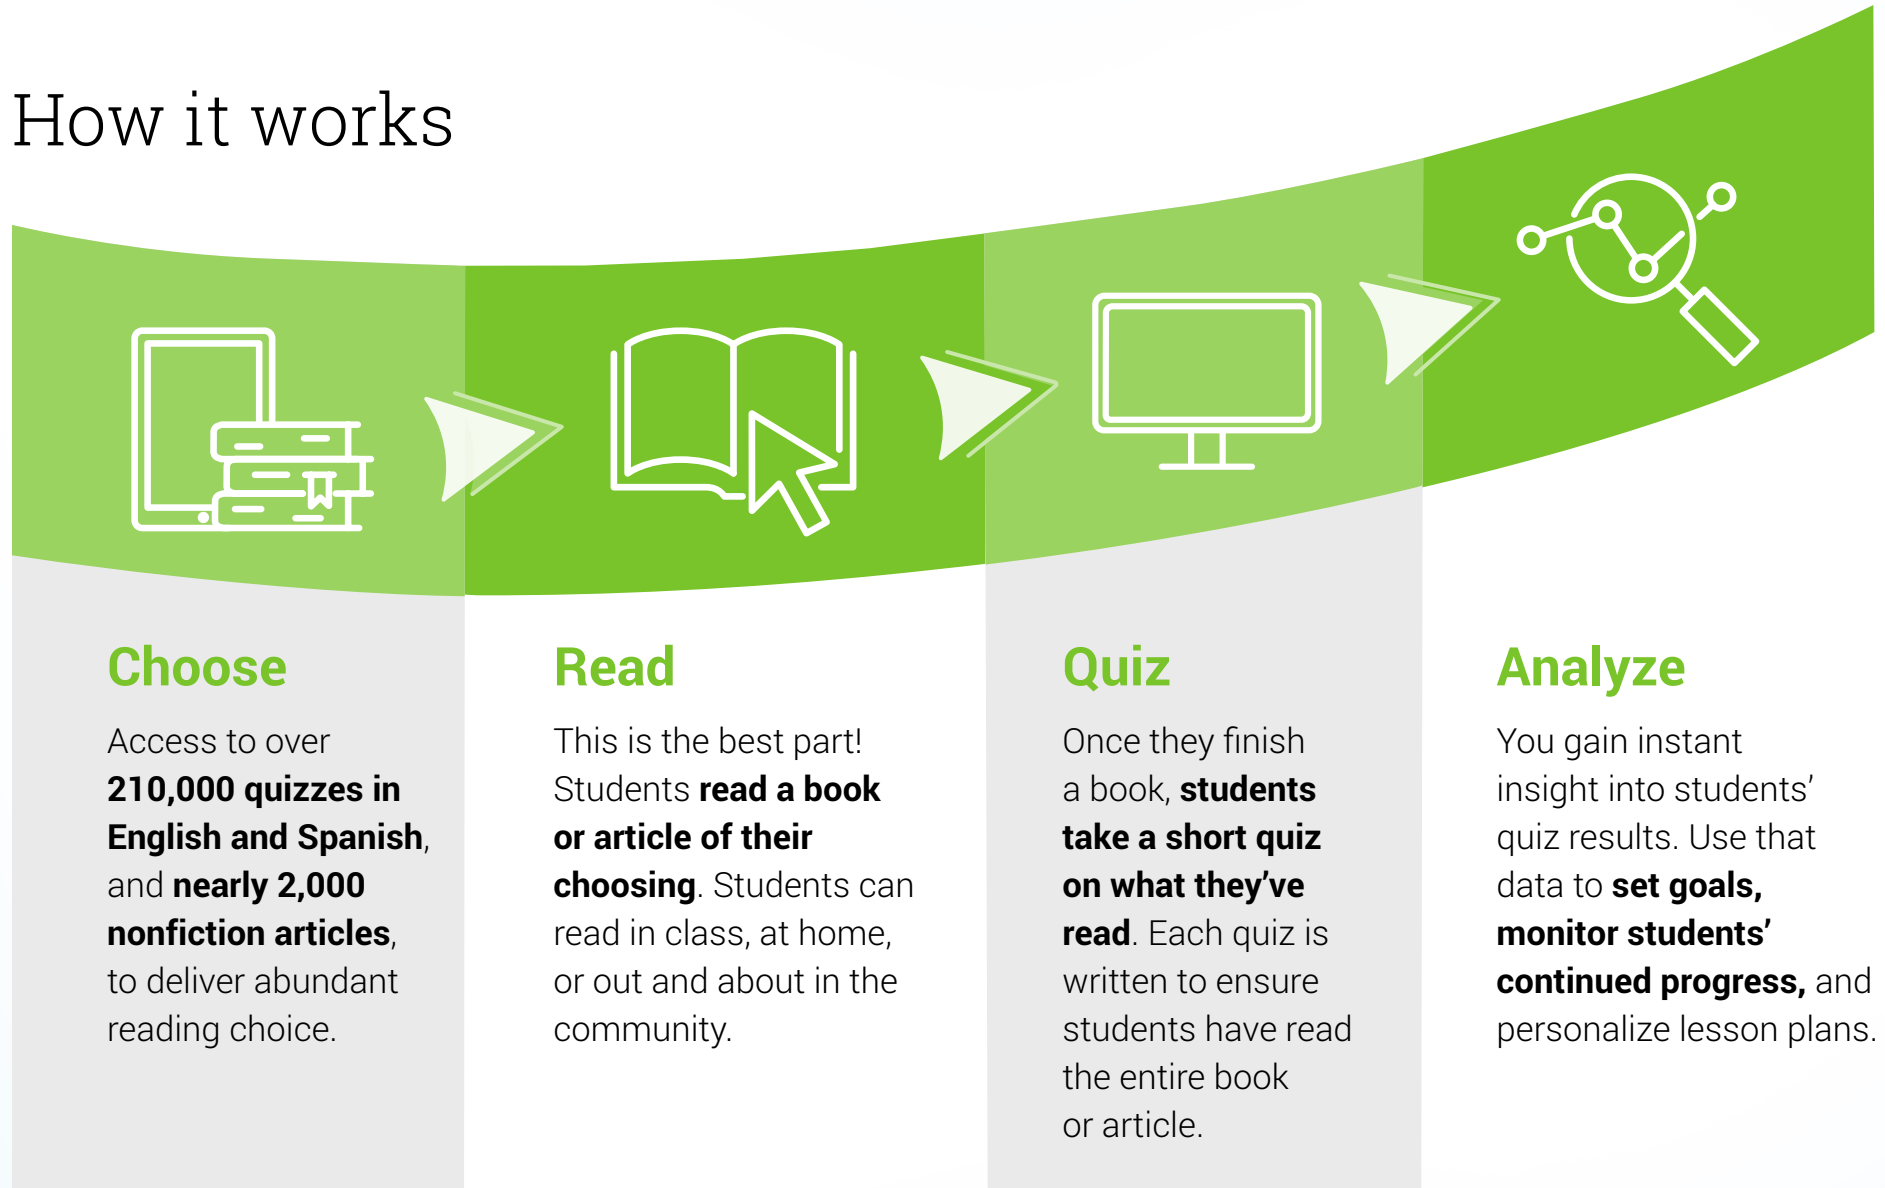

Accelerated Reader

Motivate, monitor, and manage students' independent reading practice. Perfect for in-person, remote, and hybrid instruction.

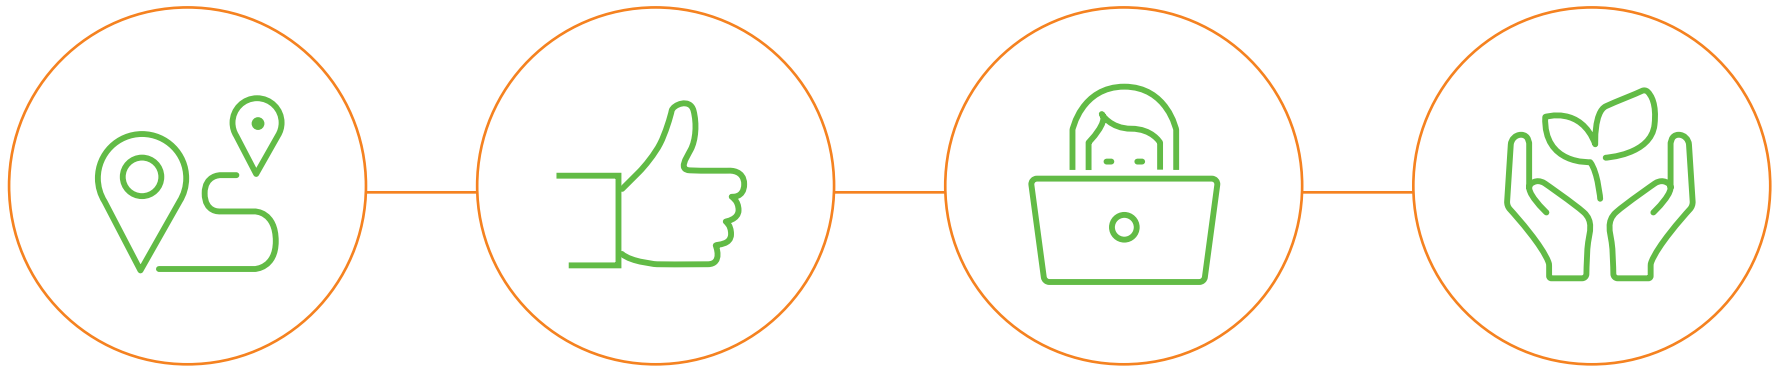

Make reading a priority in-person and at home

How it works

Implement an effective cycle of reading practice

Guide

Effortlessly create personalized goals around the three factors proven to make reading practice most effective:

- Comprehension
- Quantity
- Complexity

Engage

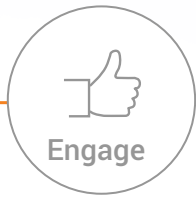

Foster motivation, engagement, and a love for reading by matching students with reading suggestions aligned to their interests and at the right level of challenge

Practice

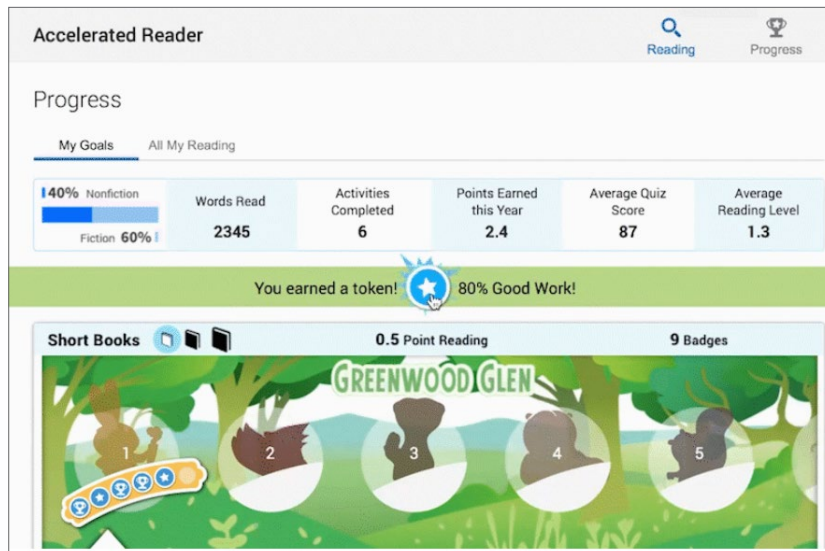

Go beyond assessing how well students understand what they read—activities help build the vocabulary and literacy skills that play a fundamental role in reading and comprehension

Grow

Provide quick and efficient insight into every student's progress with a complete menu of powerful reports—letting you spend more time with each student to better personalize their learning experience

Inspire independent reading by setting the right goals

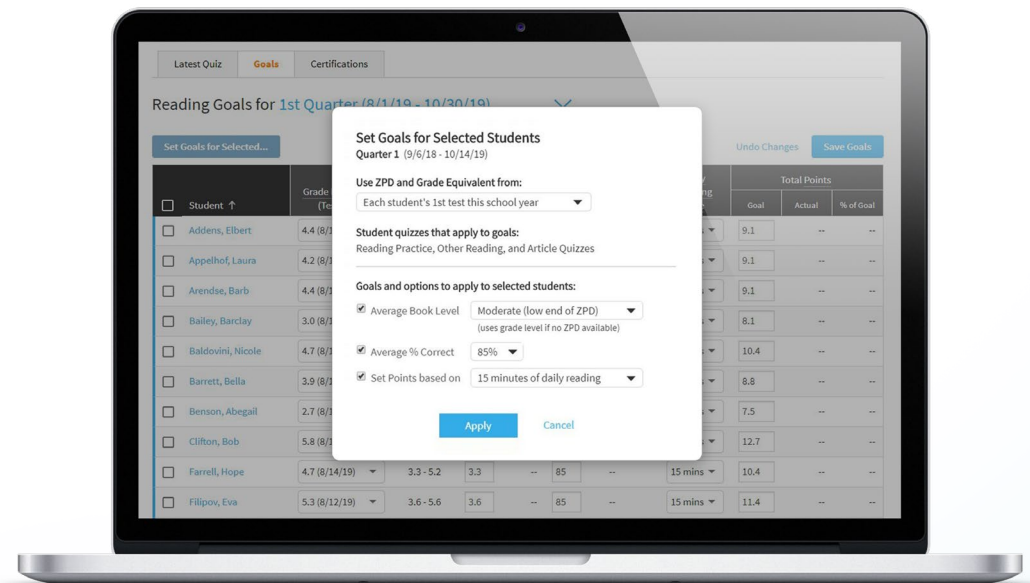

Engage young readers in their AR Goals

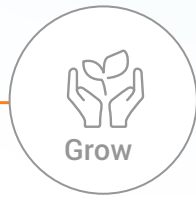

Goal setting is at the heart of the most effective Accelerated Reader implementations:

- Simplified metrics for student understanding
- Clear visualization on next steps for the student
- Engaging design to keep younger students motivated

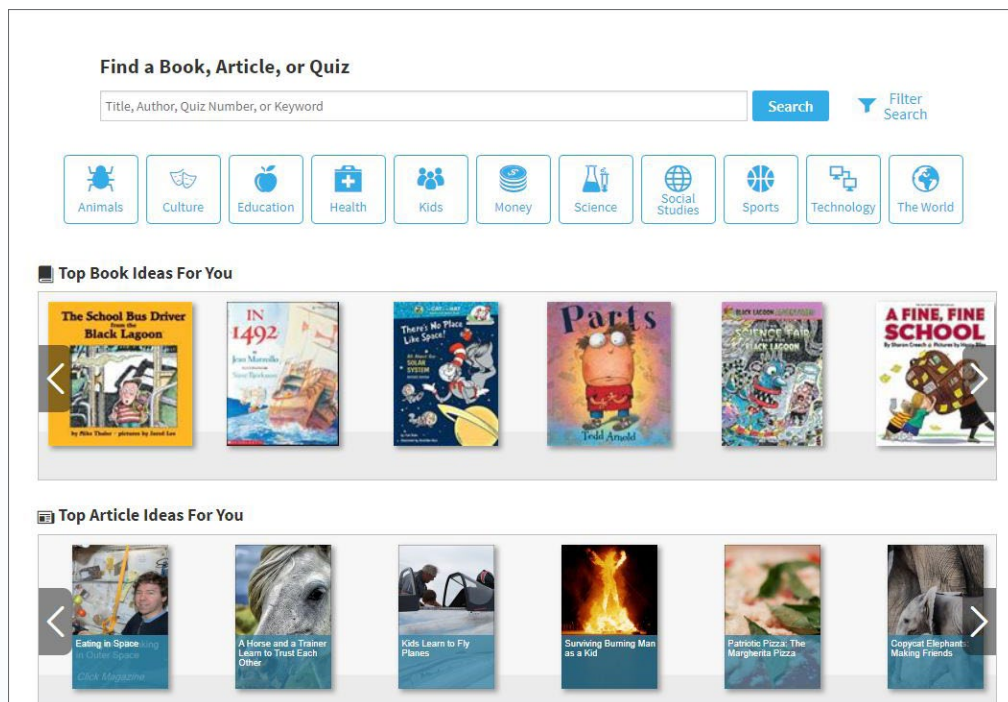

Drive student agency

Personalized goals help students stay focused—and help you monitor their progress. Create goals around comprehension, engaged reading time, and students' reading levels. Students can track their individual goals to gain agency over their learning.

Motivate with “just-right” recommendations and more choice than ever

Try searching Accelerated Reader Bookfinder for book titles based on authors, topics, collections, state lists, or our latest What Kids Are Reading Report.

Smart reading choices = greater student growth

Reading suggestions—which are based on students’ reading history, reading level, and books’ popularity—get smarter as students read more.

More quizzes, faster

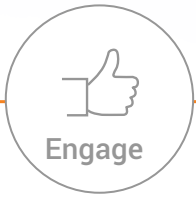

When a highly anticipated title—like the latest book in the Dog Man series—is released, our team works to ensure that students can take the Accelerated Reader quiz as quickly as possible.
